Schedule Adopted by the Western Association Provides for Eleven Sunday Games in Indianapolis.

MR. WATKINS FARED WELL

SECURED DECORATION DAY AND LA-BOR DAY DATES AT HOME.

Season to Be Opened Here with Milwaukee-Sensational Statements by Comiskey at Banquet.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
CHICAGO, March 1.—The schedule meeting of the American Association adjourned this evening without there having been a misunderstanding of any kind. The meeting was so peaceful that it was hard to realize a baseball organization was arranging its schedule for the coming season.
The schedule was adopted without any sore throats coming to the surface.

The schedule provides that Indianapolis shall open the season at home with Milwaukee on April 2. The Western teams come East and Indianapolis will have sixteen games at home before going West to open St. Paul's season at home. Indianapolis fared very well in the schedule, having Decoration Day and Labor day at home.

The schedule also provides for eleven Sunday games in Indianapolis. Speaking of the Sunday games, Manager Watkins said: "The schedule committee decided to schedule Indianapolis at home for eleven Sundays. In case we are not allowed to play those games we will be deprived of that many games at home. The American Association wants cities that can have Sunday ball, and the experiment will be tried in Indianapolis."

Dale Gear, secretary of the Players' Protective Association, appeared before a committee composed of Messrs. Watkins, Bryce, of Columbus, and Clingman, of Milwaukee, in behalf of the players. Mr. Gear asked for a delegate on the playing rules committee, which was granted. The playing rules committee, composed of Messrs.
Watkins, Robison and Witman, asked for further time to prepare a report on the rules to be adopted. The rules arranged at Buffalo will not be accepted.

When the visiting newspaper men and magnates sat down at the banquet table Charles Comiskey was a prominent figure at the table. He offered a toast to the long life of the American Association, saying it had the territory and would win. He said John D. Brush was the leader of baseball and hoped he would win out against Spalding.

Comiskey is owner of the American League ball club. He insisted on talking at frequent intervals during the course of the banquet and made several sensational statements. He declared he was for John T. Brush and the National League first, last and always. He said Johnson was not the whole thing in baseball, and this would be demonstrated sooner or later.

Baseball men present said that Comiskey's statements were evidently the result of jealousy because Ban Johnson had threatened to remove him as leader of baseball.
Comiskey's statements show there is as much internal strife in the American League as there is in the National League, with which the public is cognizant.
